

WASHINGTON STATE SOCIETY

MEMBERSHIP SIGN-UP 2008

Who We Are: The Washington State Society is a non-profit, non-partisan, member organization comprised of individuals who are living and working in the Washington, DC metropolitan area but are still "rooted" in or have connections to Washington state. The Washington State Society brings together all with a love of the "other" Washington--Members of Congress, Capitol Hill and Administration staff, journalists, students, military staff, diplomats, business leaders, and many more. Our premier event is our annual Potlatch dinner. For more than 40 years, members feast on fine Washington state products, such as seafood, wine and beer.

Membership Benefits: Your dues of $10 for Calendar Year 2008 will allow you to enjoy free admission to happy hours, receptions, and sports-watching events and a discount on your Potlatch ticket.

Washington State Society Events:

Since its inception, the Society has fostered relationships within the community by hosting and sponsoring a many established events in the DC area, including:

- Potlatch
- Congressional Reception
- Pacific Northwest Golf Tournament
- Apple Cup
- Northwest Holiday Party
- Happy Hours
